

I. Write down the type of book under each definition:

*fables, adventure stories, encyclopedias, fantasy books,
science fiction, detectives, fairy tales, humorous stories;*

1. I am fond of reading these books because they have facts about everything. –

2. I am a real fan of these books about the future, space travel and faraway planets because they are full of adventures. – _____
3. I can't stand these books about crimes, criminals and detectives because they are cruel and give me goosebumps. – _____
4. I don't like reading these stories with happy ends about fairies and other magical people though they are touching and good always wins over evil. – _____
5. These books are amusing and exciting, I think. They are about imaginary worlds and there's a lot of magic in them. The main characters are usually elves, hobbits, witches and magicians. I don't mind reading them. – _____
6. I think these stories are very amusing and exciting. They are about adventures of brave and clever people. – _____
7. I enjoy reading these books because something funny always happens with the characters and they make people laugh and forget about different problems. – _____
8. I am keen on reading these traditional stories. They are usually about animals that teach a moral lesson. I think they are educational and make us think. – _____