A. It's hot today. I love such weather. There's hardly a cloud in the sky. It looks so blue and clear. Let's go to the beach, the water must be really warm. It's a good day for swimming, sunbathing and just relaxing.

B. The day is grey and gloomy. I'm sitting upstairs in my room and looking out the window. Few people are walking in the street. They're all holding umbrellas. They're bright and colourful. It makes me feel a bit better.

C. We're on holiday in the mountains. It's not at all warm here, minus ten degrees in the daytime. Nights and early mornings have minus fifteen. But the snow is unbelievably white, and it's a pleasure to ski and skate in such weather.

D. Look! The clouds are moving so quickly in the sky! And the trees are bending. I think it's a real storm. The birds cannot fly. And it's hard for the people to walk, and to drive, too. Let's stay indoors. It's dangerous to go outside.
