

UNIT 1 - READING WORKSHEET #9
READING COMPREHENSION QUESTIONS

DATE: _____

2 Check T for True and F for False.

1. The female mockingbird sings more often than the male.
2. When a mockingbird imitates, it often tricks other birds.
3. The female mockingbird sings to attract the male.
4. Mockingbirds can remember human beings.

<input type="radio"/> T	<input type="radio"/> F
<input type="radio"/> T	<input type="radio"/> F
<input type="radio"/> T	<input type="radio"/> F
<input type="radio"/> T	<input type="radio"/> F

3 Check what you learned from the text.

Mockingbird characteristic	Male	Female
1. Live in South America
2. Imitate other birds
3. Are loud singers
4. Always sing many songs
5. Sing to attract
6. Sing to keep away other birds

- 4 Write. List the facts that you know about the lives of mockingbirds.
Use the text in Activity 1 and the chart in Activity 3.

5 Write. Answer the questions in your notebook.

1. What is the most interesting fact you learned about mockingbirds?

2. What other animals can imitate sounds?