

A. WHAT ARE THEY LIKE?

Complete the definitions with the adjectives.

affectionate / aggressive / ambitious / anxious / bossy / charming / competitive / independent / jealous / moody / rebellious / reliable / ~~selfish~~ / sensible / sensitive / sociable / spoiled / stubborn

1. Selfish people think only about themselves and not about others.
2. A _____ person always wants to win.
3. _____ children behave badly because they are given everything they want.
4. An _____ person gets angry quickly and likes fighting and arguing.
5. _____ people have an attractive personality and make people like them.
6. A _____ person has common sense and is practical.
7. A _____person is friendly and enjoys being with other people.
8. _____ people are often worried or stressed.
9. A _____ person is happy one minute and sad the next, and is also bad-tempered.
10. _____ people like doing things on their own without any help.
11. A _____ person likes giving orders to others.
12. An _____ person shows that he/ she loves or likes people very much.
13. A _____ person thinks that someone loves another person more than him or her, or wants what other people have.
14. A _____ person can be easily hurt or offended.
15. An _____ person wants to be successful in life.
16. A _____ person is someone who you can trust or depend on.
17. A _____ person doesn't like obeying rules.
18. A _____ person never changes his/her opinion or attitude about something.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

B. OPPOSITES

Match the adjectives and their opposites.

cheap / hardworking / outgoing / self-confident / stupid / talkative

1. generous _____
2. insecure _____
3. lazy _____
4. quiet _____
5. shy _____
6. smart _____

False friends

Some words in English are very similar to words in other languages, but have different meanings.

Sensible looks very similar to sensible in Spanish and French, but in fact in English it means someone who has common sense and is practical. The Spanish / French word sensible translates as sensitive in English (to describe a person who is easily hurt).

Sympathetic does not mean the same as sempatik in Turkish (which mean nice, friendly). In English, sympathetic means a person who understands other people's feelings, e.g., My best friend was very sympathetic when I failed my exam last week.

each other

When brothers and sisters get older they value each other more.

Use each other to talk about an action between two people or groups of people, e.g., I don't get along very well with my father. We don't understand each other.

C. NOW YOU DO IT!

Think about five of our B1 classmates. Choose 5 adjectives from section A / B that describe them and leave a comment with your examples on Schoology!

LIVEWORKSHEETS