

COMPLETE THE SECOND SENTENCE SO THAT IT HAS A SIMILAR MEANING TO THE FIRST ONE:

1. Young children mustn't go in the deep end of the pool.
Young children are _____ in the deep end of the pool.
2. This is the first time I've been to this hotel.
I _____ to this hotel before.
3. When I was younger, I went to the cinema every week, but I don't go anymore.
I _____ to the cinema every week, but now I don't.
4. "When did you become a vegetarian?" the doctor asked me.
The doctor asked me when _____ a vegetarian.
5. My old jacket isn't big enough for me.
My old jacket is _____ for me.
6. We stayed in the pool for two hours.
We _____ two hours in the pool.
7. My boss suggested that I should sleep more.
"If I were you, _____," my boss told me.
8. "Don't go out!" the teacher told the kids.
The teacher told the kids _____.
9. Being in front of the UFO was more frightening than jumping from the bridge.
Jumping from the bridge wasn't as _____ being in front of the UFO.
10. I started working in the café two years ago.
I _____ for two years.