

Name: _____ NOUN PHRASES Roll# /sec: _____

Join determiners/adjectives with head words (nouns) to form noun phrases.

Determiner/Adjective	Head word
seven tiny	volcano
some loaded	elves
an	trucks
two honest	emporium
a very large	diamonds
some precious	policemen

Drag and drop the given nouns/determiners/adjectives to complete the noun phrases in the following sentences.

fiction bitter black leather
sweet smelling These bats

- _____red cotton shirts are not my size.
- Amir read a hundred-page horror _____during lockdown.
- The tourist sipped the _____coffee.
- A colony of _____ flew past a haunted castle.
- She picked up some _____ flowers.
- Those _____ bags are very expensive.

Select the head words in the following noun phrases.

- the clear gushing rivers a. gushing b. rivers c. clear
- a huge elephant in a wooden pen a. elephant b. pen c. wooden
- long birthday caps on our heads a. birthday b. heads c. caps

Dropdown and select the head words in the following noun phrases.

a) the long bumpy road

b) a bright spacious kitchen in a modern house

c) an enormous monster with ten spiky arms

Drag and drop the given words to form a noun phrase.

i. a fluffy / wooden / cotton candy / a / stick / on

ii. some / apricot tree / branches / an / with / long

iii. gadgets / electronics shop / some / in / modern / an

iv. thick long / four / big fat / fur / rabbits / with

Read the sentences then Identify and write the noun phrase in the given box.

I got scared when an ugly old witch waved at me.

He got excited when a cute little baby smiled at him.

