

Narwhals

Ocean Animals- Whales

Belugas

A. Drag and drop. Fill in the blanks with the correct word.

bigger	fish	can	lives	tusk	eggs
--------	------	-----	-------	------	------

The narwhal is a type of whale which (1) _____ in the Arctic Sea, around the North Pole. It is a mammal, so it doesn't lay (2) _____; it gives birth to live young. . The narwhal needs to swim up for air every twenty-five minutes. It eats squid, shrimp, crab, and (3) _____. The narwhal is smaller than a sea lion and a beluga whale, but (4) _____ than a seal. It has a round, gray body, and the males have one long tooth that looks like a unicorn horn. It is called a tusk. The males use their (5) _____ to catch food and to fight. Narwhals live in groups called pods. There are between fifteen and twenty whales in a narwhal family. The narwhal (6) _____ swim under the ice and find holes to come up and breathe.

B. Write questions for these answers. Match the colours! Use Where do...? Can...? What do...? Do...?*

?	Narwhals and belugas live in the Arctic Sea
?	Yes, narwhals and belugas can swim under the ice.
?	Narwhals and belugas eat squid, shrimp, crab and fish.
?	Yes, narwhals and belugas live in groups?

C. What do narwhals and beluga whales eat? Read the descriptions and select the animal names under their pictures.

Crabs are crustaceans. They are hard on the outside. They have six long legs and two pincers that go snap!

Shrimp are also crustaceans. They are small and curved with little legs and have two antennae.

Squids are mollusks. They are soft like jelly and have eight tentacles.

The arctic cod is a fish. It has three fins on top, and two fins and underneath. It is long and thin.

The greenland halibut is also a fish. It is round and flat.

D. Meet the Octopus!

Watch the video and select the correct answers.

1. Which type of animal is this?
2. Where does the octopus live?
3. How many arms does it have?
4. What does the octopus eat?
5. Which animals eat it?
6. How does the octopus swim?
7. What can the octopus do? Click! (5 are correct)	Grow new arms	Use suckers to grab things.	Taste with suckers	Change colour and shape	Get smaller
	Grow new eyes				Shoot ink