

1. Love at first sight means you like someone:

- A. before you meet them.
- B. the first time they see you.
- C. the first time you see them

2. If something is a labor of love, you do it:

- A. for someone you love a lot.
- B. because you really want to, not because you get paid.
- C. with people you really like.

3. A love-hate relationship is one where:

- A. one person loves and the other person hates.
- B. you enjoy feeling negative about something.
- C. you feel both emotions at the same time.

4. You can write Lots of love at the end of:

- A. a business letter.
- B. an informal letter.
- C. a job application

5. The expression “We’re loving our new house”:

- A. has no meaning at all.
- B. is formal English.
- C. is OK in informal English.

6. Which response is correct? A: Do you want to meet before class tomorrow?

- A. B: I love to.
- B. B: I'd love to.
- C. B: I'm loving to.

7. Pizza is your favorite food. Which sentence expresses this best?

- A. I enjoy pizza.
- B. I like pizza.
- C. I love pizza.

8. Complete the sentence from an email: Say "Hi" to your parents and ____

- A. give them my love.
- B. pass them my love.
- C. tell them my love.