

3. Choose the correct adjective.

- It was alarming / alarmed how tall the giraffe was.
- The tiger was pink that's why the man was confused / confusing.
- The lion was relaxing / relaxed in the sun.
- The Pope is admired / admiring by many people.
- Being in a zoo made the crocodile feel depressed / depressing.
- It was frightening / frightened to see a shark swim by.
- She is surprised / surprising that rhinos are endangered.
- It was embarrassed / embarrassing that she thought a zebra was a horse.
- They were shocked / shocking when they saw the biggest shark ever.
- They have been working for more than 14 hours, they're exhausting / exhausted now.

4. Listen to the audio and choose the correct answers.  Track 29

- What does Steven do?
  - He's a reporter.
  - He's a scientist.
- Why is he at the zoo?
  - It's the zoo's 50th anniversary.
  - It's the zoo's 55th anniversary.
- Which animals are relaxing in the shade?
  - The giraffes and rhinos
  - The giraffes and zebras
- Why are the hippos exhausted?
  - Because there's a pregnant hippo.
  - Because there's a pregnant lion.
- Steven has always _____ the zoo staff.
  - surprised
  - admired