

GRAMMAR QUESTION FORMS

1 A Complete the questions with a question word or an auxiliary verb.

- When does the film start?
- How often do you see your grandmother?
- Where are my keys? I can't find them.
- Do you enjoy watching films?
- Who do you know Sabina? She's my best friend.
- Where do you usually go on holiday?
- How many hours do you work?
- What time did you get here? I'm sorry I'm late.

B Match answers a)–h) with questions 1–8 in Exercise 1A.

- About five minutes ago. Don't worry, it's no problem. _____
- No, I don't. Hi, Sabina. _____
- Once or twice a year. _____
- We usually go to Spain. My aunt has a house there. _____
- Here they are. They were on the television! _____
- Yes, I do. But I don't like horror films. _____
- Usually about thirty-five hours a week. _____
- In half an hour. _____

VOCABULARY PHRASES WITH GET, GO, HAVE, SPEND

2 A Write the words in the box in the correct column.

married children money on clothes a barbecue time off work the bus time with family on well on holiday to the cinema sightseeing

| get | go | have | spend |
|---------|----|------|-------|
| married | | | |
| | | | |
| | | | |

B Which phrases from Exercise 2A would you use for situations 1–7?

- You meet someone you like and want to spend your life together. get married
- You travel home on public transport. _____
- You visit your mother every day. _____
- You do this to watch a film. _____
- You eat in the garden and the food is cooked over a fire. _____
- You have a good relationship with someone. _____
- You visit the places tourists see in a city. _____

GRAMMAR PAST SIMPLE

3 Complete the article with the past simple form of the verbs in brackets.

ANGRY MOTHER PUNISHES SIXTY-ONE-YEAR-OLD SON

An angry mother ¹ (take) the house keys and money away from her sixty-one-year-old son because he ² (stay) out late at night and ³ (not tell) her where he planned to go when he ⁴ (go out). The mother, who is eighty-one years old, even went to the police in Caltagirone, Italy, the town where she lives. She ⁵ (ask) the police to tell her son that he should 'grow up' and behave in a better way towards his mother. The son ⁶ (complain) that it was his mother who ⁷ (be) the problem: 'It's not my fault!' he ⁸ (tell) reporters. 'She always treats me badly. And her cooking is really awful!'

A policeman ⁹ (talk) to the mother and the son, and they finally ¹⁰ (decide) to go home together.

FUNCTION MAKING CONVERSATION

4 A Complete the words in the conversations.

- A: Hello. My name's Felipe. It's n i c e to meet you.
B: Hi, I'm Magda. Nice to meet you, t ____.
- A: Nice day, i ____ t it?
B: Yes, it's l v l y.
- A: S __, where exactly do you c m ____ from?
B: Zaragoza. It's a small c t y in Northern Spain.
- A: Did you have a g o ____ d w k ____ d?
B: Yes, it was OK. I didn't d m ____ ch.
- A: So, w o ____ d you l k ____ a dr k ____?
B: Yes, I'd l v ____ a glass of w t ____ r.
- A: I'll s ____ you l t ____ r.
B: S ____ you s ____ n.

B  R1.1 Listen and check.

GRAMMAR PRESENT SIMPLE AND CONTINUOUS

5 Find and correct the mistakes in the sentences.

- don't like*
- I ~~am not liking~~ fish.
 - I stay with some friends for a few days so I can look for somewhere to live.
 - I'm not knowing what time the lesson starts.
 - They spend time with their family in Germany at the moment.
 - We're usually going out for a pizza about once a week.
 - I'm not understanding where Ian is. He never arrives late.
 - Do you watch this programme, or can I watch the football on the other channel?