D. Fill in the blanks with prepositions in , on or at.

In / On Monday I'm going on holiday. I normally go on holiday in / on March or April. The last time I was in Japan was in / on 2019. Most people take their holidays in / on summer but I am not going to do it this year due to Covid-19. So this weekend, I'm just going to take it easy. Usually in / at the weekend, I would go out for a jog in / on the morning at / on 7am , followed by eating out on / in the evening and maybe go out with some friends on / at night.
