A. Read the text quickly. Circle the things that Marco spends money on.

Marco the Shopaholic

Marco is a shopaholic. He spends all his spare time shopping. He goes shopping every weekend and often in the evenings after work. He sometimes goes shopping during his lunchtime. He spends most of his money on clothes and new high-tech gadgets like his iPod and cell phone. He has three cell phones in three different colors. They are all the latest models. He likes expensive clothes, and he never buys cheap clothes. He only wears designer brands. He wears Burberry shirts and Calvin Klein pants. He loves Tommy Hilfiger socks. His favorite brand of shoes is Kenneth Cole. He has 15 pairs!

Marco doesn't spend a lot of money every month on food and entertainment. He spends only 5 percent of his salary on food and 10 percent on entertainment. But every month, he spends about 35 percent on designer clothes. He spends about 10 percent of his salary on transportation. He drives a BMW. Don't forget his cell phone—he spends about 5 percent on his cell. He spends the rest on rent. Marco doesn't save any of his salary. He spends it all. He's planning to move to a new apartment soon. He needs more space for his clothes and shoes!
