

Malala Yousafzai's Inspirational Speech

What was Malala's strong opinion of her speech?

- a) To remain silent and wait to be killed by the Taliban.
- b) To speak up and, then, to be killed.

Is Malala's story unique?

a) Yes, because she was shot by the Taliban.

b) No, because it is the story of millions of girls.

Why does she say "I'm not a lone voice"?

a) Because she represents all those girls who can't study.

b) Because she is a girl from Pakistan.

What does she mean by "It's time the world thinks bigger"?

a) It is time for parents to stop sending kids to school.

b) It is time to make a change and encourage equal education for boys and girls.