12 One adult and three children can buy a Family Fare.      17 The Railway has appeared in at least one film.
13 The Railway is the only attraction in Nene Park.      18 Groups of school children can only visit the railway in May or June.
14 The biggest steam engine at Wansford is French.      19 A group of fifty pupils pays more per child than a group of sixty.
15 You can see the German engine only at certain times of the year.      20 You can book a train for a private party.

NENE VALLEY RAILWAY

About the Railway The twelve kilometer-long Nene Valley Railway passes through the lovely Nene Park, from an Eastern terminus at Peterborough to the Railway's headquarters at Wansford (next to the A1 main road). A two-kilometer extension of the Railway takes passengers through Wansford Tunnel to the quiet beauty of Yarwell, the present Western end of the line.

Fares: adult £10.00, child £5.00, Family Fare (up to 2 adults and 3 children) £25.00. Special prices may apply on public holidays.

Nene Park With golf courses and a large Caravan Club site, why not make it a complete day out for the family by visiting Nene Park? There are thousands of hectares of public parkland with boating lakes, picnic areas and a nature reserve, as well as a miniature railway.

Wansford Wansford Station is the home of a unique collection of historic trains from many parts of Europe. This includes such famous types as the elegant De Glen Compound locomotive from France, and the German Class 52 Kriegslok (the largest working steam engine in Britain) as well as '92 Squadron' and 'Mayflower' which were built in Britain. You can see these engines all year round whether or not the Nene Valley Railway is running. The buffet, bar and souvenir shop, however, are only open on days when the train is running. A site entrance fee of £2.00 for adults and £1.00 for children is charged at Wansford.

A Famous Railway Nene Valley Railway is a favourite with film makers, due in particular to its ability to take on the appearance of a railway in any part of Europe. Octopussy, in the series of James Bond movies, is a good example of what can be done. Come and see where it was filmed.

Services for Schools The Railway runs special timetable services from May to July to allow school groups to visit the railway and for teachers to set projects. The work can be done while pupils are here or in the classroom. A special educational pack is available, price £1.50 plus postage. At other times of the year, school parties can hire the train ('Teddy Bear') with up to 3 carriages to travel along the Railway on non-service days. One month's prior booking is requested. There are special low fares for groups of 60 or more pupils. Telephone 01780 784444 for further information.

Private Hire of Trains The Railway is a popular place for special family occasions or a company visit. It can provide the setting for a most interesting afternoon or evening out. Special programmes can be arranged to meet your wishes to include buffet, bar, entertainment, discos, etc. For further information please contact the General Manager at Wansford Station.

PART 4 - Questions 21 to 25: Read the text and questions below. For each question, mark the letter next to the correct answer- A, B, C or D.

Some people have complained about this year's collection, New Writing 3, although I cannot understand why. Surely 500 pages of original writing of this quality, for £6.99, is pretty amazing?

Fiction- both parts of novels and complete short stories- makes up most of the book. There are some enjoyable pieces by famous writers, such as Candia McWilliam and Rose Tremain. It's a strange fact that the less well-known people seem to have written mainly about food. Take my advice about Jane Harris's Those Nails- this piece should definitely not be read just after meals. It contains some very unpleasant scenes which could turn your stomach!

There is fine work from nineteen poets, including R. S. Thomas and John Burnside. There are pieces from novels-in-progress by Jim Crace and Jane Rogers. Finally, there is a little non-fiction, which includes a very funny article by Alan Rusbridger on certain newspapers, and an extraordinary piece about herself from Ursula Owen. This is an exceptional collection and I for one can't wait to see what next year's choice will include.

- 21 What is the writer trying to do in the text?
A give her opinions about a new book      B give some information about new writers
C give some advice to writers      D give her opinion of newspaper journalists
- 22 Why would somebody read the text?
A to find out more details about something      B to learn what next year's collection will contain
C to find out about Alan Rusbridger's new novel      D to decide whether to complain about something
- 23 What does the writer think of New Writing 3?
A It's too long.      B It's very amusing.      C It's very good.      D It's too serious.
- 24 How might you feel after reading Jane Harris's piece?
A hungry      B excited      C unhappy      D sick
- 25 Which of the following describes New Writing 3?
A Great value: two novels, poems and articles for only £6.99
B Great value: the best of new writing for only £6.99
C Great value: poems by Tremain, Harris and Burnside for only £6.99
D Great value: newspapers for a whole year for only £6.99
