

What do living thing do? (Pages 6 and 7)

What systems do living things have? (Pages 14 & 15)

1. Match each sentence with the right life process.

All living thing take in essential nutrients from the environment
All living thing detect information from the environment.
Living things can create new members of their own species

Nutrition
Interaction
Reproduction

2. Listen to the statements (listen to them pressing the play button) and say nutrition, interaction or reproduction.

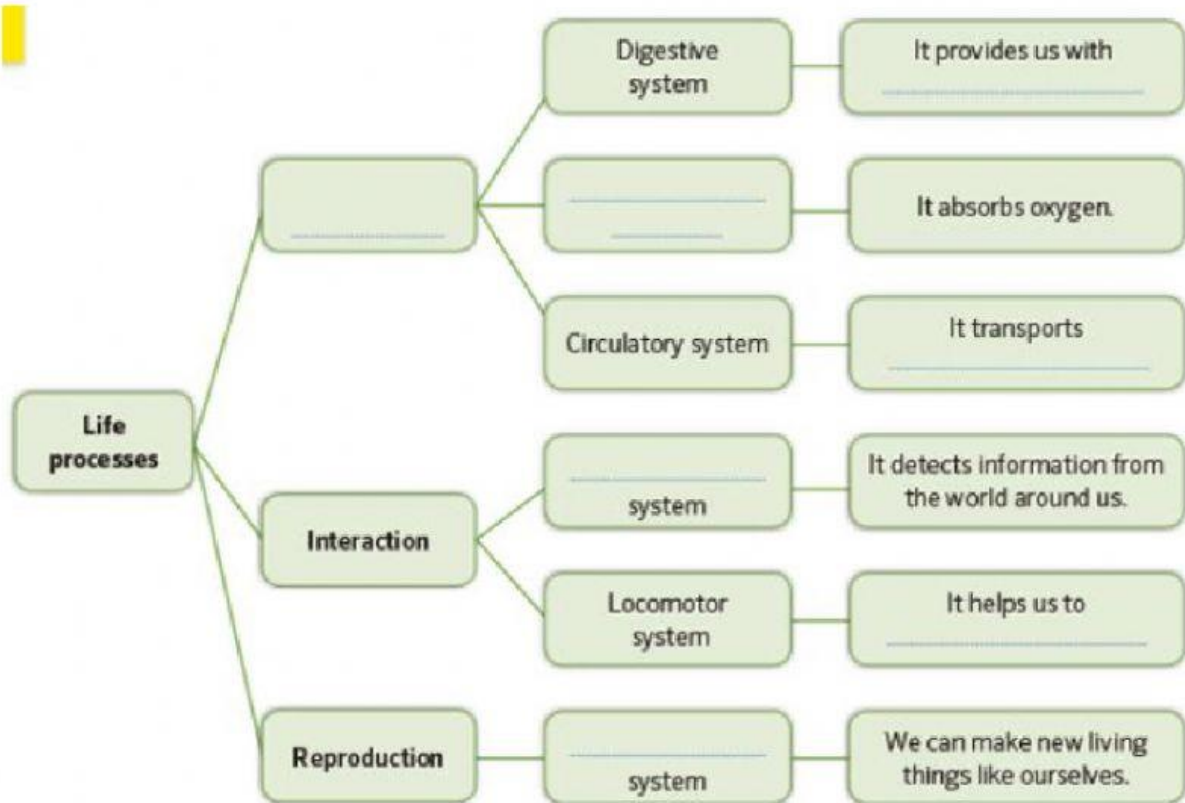

1
2
3
4

3. Write N (nutrition), I (interaction) or R (reproduction) in each box.

- a) An adult chicken lays eggs almost every day in the summer.
- b) Some sea animals expel poisons to keep predators away.
- c) After running a race, an athlete should drink lots of water.
- d) In the savannah, cheetahs often hunt gazelles for food.
- e) An elephant's pregnancy is estimated to last about 22 months.
- f) Human beings usually form families and live together in houses.

<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>
<input type="checkbox"/>

4. Complete the scheme

5. Write true (T) or false (F)

- The skeletal system is important because we can't move around without it.
- The skeletal system is also important because our bones support our body.
- Our skeletal system also absorbs the oxygen from the air around us
- Our bones are important because they protect our organs

6. Which basic life processes are these systems related to?

Male reproductive system _____

Digestive system _____

Nervous system _____

Circulatory system _____

Muscular system _____

Respiratory _____

Female reproductive system _____

Skeletal System _____

7. Complete the vocabulary

Spanish	English	Spanish	English
Celula		Músculos
Pulmón		Ovarios
Corazón		Espermatozoides
Cerebro		Estómago
Huesos		Intestino grueso

HAVE A NICE DAY!