

What's New?

Match each sentence 1-8 with the sentence a-h that logically follows it.

1. Renewable energy is very important.

2. Humans are using all the planet's fossil fuels quickly.

3. Many people think climate change is a big problem.

4. Conservation areas are very important.

5. An animal's natural habitat is the place where it lives.

6. Many animals are on the list of endangered species.

7. Solar power is available everywhere.

8. Power stations are often huge.

d. Most of our electricity is still produced in them.

Drag and drop these sentences into the boxes.

a. They help to give animals and insects in danger of extinction a safe place to live.

b. The temperature of the earth and sea has gone up by about 1°C in the last 100 years.

c. If we don't protect them, they will become extinct.

e. It is the power we get from the sun, wind and sea.

f. It's important that we don't destroy the land they live on.

g. We get it from the sun and it is very easy to use.

h. It took millions of years for oil, coal and gas to form and we are using them up too fast.