

I don't watch any television but I really like watching films on my computer. My parents watch about two hours of television a day. I think middle-aged people watch a lot of television. My friends watch a little, but not much.	DAVE	I watch television every day after school. I watch in my bedroom. My parents aren't into watching television at all. We haven't got a TV in the living room. My grandparents love watching television – the TV is always on at their house.	SUE
I watch television on Friday nights. My parents and I watch films together. My parents are real couch potatoes but I prefer going on the internet on my computer. When I've got money, I go to the cinema with my friends. I'm really into science fiction films.	MARK	I prefer to spend time outside. I only watch television when it is cold. I watch about an hour a week. I'm not interested in the programmes they have on TV. I prefer reading books. I read novels. I read a new book every week. My parents read, but only magazines and newspapers.	TESSA

1 He/She doesn't watch television when the weather is good.	2 He/She never watches television.	3 He/She talks about his/her favourite kind of films.	4 He/She has got a television in his/her bedroom.
5 His/Her parents don't read books.	6 His/Her parents watch television with him/her one day a week.	7 His/Her parents watch about two hours of television every day.	8 His/Her parents never watch television.