READING TEST A2

It started raining. I had to go back to the apartment to get my umbrella. The elevator was not working, so I climbed six floors to my place. When I got back downstairs, I was so tired that I sat down on a bench to rest. By that time, it had stopped raining, but the ground was still wet. A brown dog walked toward me and bit my pants. He splashed water all over my new shoes. Finally, the bus came, and I left to the supermarket. When I arrived at the supermarket, I realized I forgot my shopping list, so I couldn't remember everything I wanted to buy. I bought some beef, pork, and chicken. I also bought lots of fruits and vegetables, like strawberries, apples, carrots, potatoes, and corn. After the cashier took my money, she gave me the wrong change. I asked for the correct amount of money, and he looked angry. I was not happy when I left the supermarket. Also, I had a terrible time on the bus ride home. First, the bus driver yelled at me because I took too much time to get on. Couldn't he see that I had so many groceries? Then, there were no seats. I had to stand in the bus with all my groceries. Then my carrots fell out of the bag, and I had to pick them up. And the worst thing? When I arrived home to cook dinner, I remembered I forgot the pasta I wanted. What a day!

He arrived at the hotel

The umbrella was in the flat

The secretary took his money

He had a great time on the bus home

A dog bit his shirt

He didn't buy pineapples

He bought corn

The bus driver was calm

There were enough empty sits

The carrots fell in the bag

He forgot the shopping list

He sat on a bench to sleep

He wasn't happy when he left the institute

At the beginning it was raining
