

I. Make up the expressions

- 1) crossroads / at / a / be
- 2) a / take / for / ride / someone
- 3) mad / somebody / drive
- 4) a / out / live / suitcase / of
- 5) beaten / off / track / the
- 6) the / hit / road

II. Match the expressions to their definitions.

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| a) be at a point when a choice must be made  | 1 |
| b) leave a place or begin a journey  | 2 |
| c) not known or popular with many people   | 3 |
| d) deceive or cheat someone  | 4 |
| e) stay for a short time in several placeswithout ever fully unpacking your suitcase | 5 |
| f) make someone extremely annoyed  | 6 |

III. Complete the sentences about people with the suitable expression from ex. I.

1. They both        me        . He often        her        and she cries a lot and then again believes him.

2. Have you packed the suitcase yet? It won't be long before we .
3. No more crowded places this summer. I've had enough. I'm planning to get somewhere for the holidays.
4. Kate loves being on the move and her schedule is pretty packed. She practically .
5. So I see that you . What have you finally decided to do?
6. What a difficult man he is! His behaviour me .
7. I travel for pleasure and on business and I want to encourage everyone to update their passport and .