

---

"If I could live my life over", vocabulary and reading checkup.

---

Select the option with the most similar meaning to the main expression.

Take each day as it comes.

Worry life is short.

Live for the present.

Do nothing.

Give up.

Start.

Stop.

Give something to a friend.

Upset.

Happy.

Disorganized.

Unhappy.

Considerate.

Intelligent.

Selfish.

Kind.

Barefoot.

Wearing leather shoes.

Wearing no shoes.

Quickly.

Answer the following questions according to the article you read. (Touchstone 3. Page 82)

What have been the two most important things in the writer's life?

What aspects of his or her life would he or she change?

Do you think the writer would be a better person "the next time around"? How?

Does the writer remind you of anyone you know? Who?

Do you have anything in common with the writer? If so, what?