A very good morning to the headmistress, Puan Norlia, teachers and fellow students. Thank you for giving me the opportunity to deliver a speech to you today. I would like to talk (0) off school regulations.

We must all make an effort to follow school regulations. School rules are there to help us be disciplined. Firstly, you must always dress (1) neat in your uniforms, complete with clean shoes and socks. Do not (2) forgetting to wear your school badge and name tag. Secondly, male students must always keep their hair short. Female students are allowed to have long hair, but it (3) could always be combed and tied up.

Thirdly, you must not wear any jewellery to school. Other than that, you (4) were not allowed to put make-up or colour your nails. You must also always be punctual. No one is allowed to (5) loitening and play truant. Do not make it a habit to skip classes. Besides that, smartphones are banned from the school (6) until they will disrupt lessons in the class. (7) We will be confiscated if found during spot checks. If you do not abide by these rules, disciplinary action will be taken (8) for you.

I hope everyone will co-operate to make the school a better place for all of us. It is important to abide by school regulations to enforce discipline in schools.

Thank you.
