Hares or rabbits, as you know, are very (timid). Even shadows of themselves (frighten) them to a hiding place. Once they decided to die rather than live in such (misery). But while they were (debating) how to meet scary death, they thought they heard a strange noise and tried to (escape). On the way they passed a large pond where a family of frogs was sitting on the riverbank. The frogs heard the hares run, and (in an instant), the (startled) frogs (leaped), (seeking) safety in the mud.

"Look," cried a hare, "things are not so bad after all, for here are some (creatures) who are even afraid of us!"
