there was a Greek hero, Odysseus.

He                   against the Trojans and then wanted to sail home to the island of Ithaca.
On the way, he and his men landed on the island of the Cyclops. The Cyclops were one-eyed giants and they ate men!
One of them trapped Odysseus and his men in a cave.

Every day, the one-eyed giant ate two of them. One night, while the giant was asleep, Odysseus put a huge piece of wood into the eye of his                   . The giant couldn't see and Odysseus and his men                   to their ship. Odysseus had many more adventures before he finally                   home ten long years later.
