

Worksheet: Am I a leader?

- You will listen to a kid, called Kid President, talking about Martin Luther King's story.
- Pay attention to Kid President's ideas and recommendations.

1. Decide whether the sentences are true or false.

	T	F
1. Kid President thinks Martin Luther King was a good leader.
2. People were discriminated against because of their skin color.
3. Martin Luther King taught people about hate.
4. Martin Luther King went to church.
5. Martin Luther King marched only with black people.
6. Kid President feels inspired by Martin Luther King.
7. Kid President thinks we can't change things in society.

2. Select the correct answer.

1. What did M. Luther King want to be when he grew up?
- a. Business man.
 - b. Famous.
 - c. A good man.

2. How did people decide if they were friends with others?
- a. Noticing others' neighborhoods.
 - b. Noticing others' skin color.
 - c. Noticing others' money.

3. Where did M. Luther King participate in his childhood?
- a. Church.
 - b. Football club.
 - c. Boy scouts.

4. What did he want to spread with others?
- a. Human rights awareness
 - b. Love and unity.
 - c. Security towards pets.

5. Where did he end up some times?
- a. In Prisons.
 - b. In Hospitals.
 - c. Working at farms.

6. How did M. Luther King die?
- a. Because of cancer.
 - b. In a fight.
 - c. Shot by someone.