

Match the items to the shops. One item is extra.

broken-	-eyed
hard-	-fashioned
green-	-working
long-	-known
well-	-hearted
kind-	-hearted
	-legged

Complete the sentences.

1. I (sh) everything with my BFF:
interests, secrets, hobbies and sometimes clothes.
2. Calling (n) is a form of bullying. It's unhealthy because it hurts people's feelings.
3. In an unhealthy (f) people hurt other people's feelings.
4. The personality of your friend means much more than their (a).
5. The best way to give (a) is to give it when you are asked.
6. It's important to be (h) with anyone, especially your friend: not to lie to them, cheat or steal.

Read about the friendship of Matilda and Miss Honey in Roald Dahl's Matilda. Fill in the gaps with the following words: friends, forever, kind-hearted, bullies, likes, neither, common. One word is extra.

In the story, the girl, Matilda, and her teacher, Miss Honey, become very good (1) . Matilda is a very special and smart child, but (2) of her parents cares about her. Matilda and her parents have nothing in (3) . Miss Honey doesn't have parents or children. She is very (4) and shy, and it is hard for her to work at a school with a head-mistress like Miss Trunchbull. Miss Trunchbull (5) everyone at school, and everyone is afraid of her. Matilda and Miss Honey find a way to stop Miss Trunchbull. The girl and the teacher become best friends (6) and each other's family.

Choose the correct item.

1. of his parents speaks English.

- a) None b) Neither c) Either

2. Which of your classmates helped you with the homework? —....

- a) None b) Neither c) Either

3. None of my favourite films... about a toxic friendship,

- a) am b) is c) aren't

4. — Which T-shirt do you like: black, yellow or red? —....

- a) Neither b) None c) Either

5. I this book since morning. I'm still reading it.

- a) 've read b) 'm reading c) 've been reading

6. I one hundred pages. I like the story a lot.

a) 've read b) 'm reading c) 've been reading

Correct the mistakes. Write the sentences correctly.

1. — What does her sister like? — She's not very tall. He's got dark hair and blue eyes.

2. — What is she like? — She loves dancing.

3. — What does your best friend like? — He's serious and not funny, but he's very kind-hearted.

4. — How long have you been playing football? — 16 years old.

5. — How many games has your team been winning? — 30,1 think.

6. — None of my parents has finished watching Game of Thrones, my favourite film.