

The company crossword

Complete the crossword with the correct word taking into account the definitions.

VERTICALS:

1. Something that a person gives in exchange of a good or service.
2. Materials to create the products.
3. Products which the companies make.

HORIZONTALS:

4. People who work in the company
5. Organization which dedicates themselves to producing goods and services in exchange of money.
6. Something that the companies offer. For example, the transport companies.

