

It's My Birthday!

Today, I am six years old. I love having my birthday. There is a party. All my friends come.

There is a cake. On top of the cake, there are six candles. Mom lights the candles. I close my eyes. I make a wish. Then, I blow out all of the candles. I hope my wish comes true.

What do I wish for? I wish to have friends from all over the world.
