

Put preposition next to the correct verb:

Addicted		harmful		responsible
Angry		shocked		Obsessed aware		unhappy		Sensitive curious		worried		pleased
familiar		similar		successful good		dissatisfied		keen with    to    about    at    for    of    in    on with    to    about    at    for with    to

with

with

with

Complete the mini-dialogues with the correct prepositions.

Sean Paul is addicted <sup>1</sup> _____ video games!

Helen I know – he’s obsessed <sup>2</sup> _____ them. His parents are really worried <sup>3</sup> _____ it.

Max The man next door is really angry <sup>4</sup> _____ me. That boy from number 16 broke his window, and he thinks I’m responsible <sup>5</sup> _____ it because I always play football in the street outside his house.

Claire Are your parents aware <sup>6</sup> _____ who really broke the window?