In the seventh battle he defeated Edward II and the English army. Robert the Bruce was King of Scotland again.

He watched a spider climb up the wall of the cave six times and drop down six times.

Robert the Bruce was King of Scotland. His army was very small. Edward I was King of England. His army was very big.

Edward I and the English army marched to Scotland and defeated Robert the Bruce in six battles.

Robert the Bruce escaped to the mountains and lived on his own in a cave. He wondered what to do next.

The spider climbed up the wall for the seventh time and started spinning its web. The spider inspired Robert the Bruce and he formed an army.
