

QUANTIFIERS (REVIEW AND EXPANSION)

Singular count nouns: one each every

Plural count nouns: a few, many (usually in negative sentences), a couple of, both, several, at least, a pair of, a number of, a majority of,

Non-count nouns: a little, much (usually in negative sentences), a great deal, less, not as much, a great amount of

Plural count or non-count nouns: no, some, any (in negative sentences), a lot of, lots of, a third of, plenty of, most, all, more, more and more.

Choose the best answer to complete each sentence.

1. I've found _____ interesting articles about trendy looks today.
2. _____ student in class should present his project orally.
3. You've eaten _____ the oranges in the fridge. I opened the fridge and I found there were _____ oranges. So, I had to eat something else.
4. You've got to be kidding. You haven't got _____ progress in your thesis, it's almost empty.
5. _____ people are buying streaming services as a means of communication.
6. Everything is great, but you forgot _____ details I told you yesterday. Let me explain.
7. _____ interest was given to the reopening ceremony of the company. It attracted too many people watching it.

8. I really need _____ shoes to go to the interview. I believe I'll head to the mall.
9. Pay attention to the recipe, It says you have to add _____ the baking powder to the dough.
10. Not _____ people know the basics of dress code in offices and public institutions.
11. _____ workers read the regulations of the institution, it said to go to work in business casual clothes on Fridays. _____ people came with informal clothes.
12. _____ of institutions have to lay off workers to keep surviving. They couldn't afford the diminished production they were having and the _____ hours they were working.
13. _____ people are working from home. so they are hiring _____ internet service than before.
14. _____ person chooses to wear what he likes to wear. It's just their style.
15. _____ students came to classes on a formal attire.