

In the modern day, Jason, the protagonist of the Jason and the Argonauts, pilots a one-man submarine to investigate a sea disturbance that caused the disappearance of his father when he was a child.

When he discovers the location, the Argo begins to fail and explodes and he is pulled into white light. He wakes up at the beach, near the kingdom of Atlantis, which governed by the authoritarian King Minos and his ambitious Queen Pasiphae, wife, Queen Pasiphae.

By chance Pythagoras, Jason meets a couple of unlucky Atlantean men: Pythagoras (a young intellectual who enjoys triangles ) and the Hercules, ex-prize fighter Hercules (who spends most of his time in taverns drinking and gambling).

The three of them encounter Zeus, gods and demigods, as they live the Greek myths and battle to do good and the innocent. Along the way, they pick up some allies including Medusa, a palace maid; Ariadne, daughter of the King and heir to the throne; and a mysterious Oracle, who seems unsurprised at Jason's arrival. The Oracle predicts a world-changing destiny is in store for Jason if he stays on the right path.

Copy the words in the correct place

predicts

story

dishonest

submarine protect monsters

fat

beautiful

WHO IS WHO

JASON

PASIPHAE

HERCULES

PYTHGORAS

KING MINOS

ARIADNE

THE ORACLE

WHO SAYS WHAT

'I'm not fat, I'm big bones'

'You have a great destiny'

'There is no greater honour than to give your life for your city, and your king.'

'Either I'm dreaming or I'm hallucinating. Or I'm dead. Am I dead?'

'How did you know I've been thinking about triangles?'

HERCULES

PYTHAGORAS

JASON

THE ORACLE

KING MINOS

WHITE STONE, BLACK STONE

PUT THE EVENTS IN ORDER

The guards chase Jason.

One of the three picks a black stone.

Jason pilots the sub to look for his father.

Ariadne lends Jason an enchanted necklace.

The friends have the last dinner together.

He arrives at Atlantis.

Jason meets Pythagoras and Hercules.