

Uses

Match the different forms of expressing future actions.

Be going to	Scheduled events. Timetables.
Will	Make and talk about offers and promises. Predictions.
Present simple	Plans and arrangements.
Present continuous	Plans or intentions. Make predictions based on evidence.

Listen to the audio and write 1 to 10 on the pictures, according to the order of the actions.

Listen to the first part of the audio and complete the conversation.

Friend: Mike, what you to today? you over to my house to play chess with me?

Mike: I'm afraid I can't. I' to a concert a little later. But I' tomorrow if that's ok.

Friend: Tomorrow I on a short trip with my family and some friends. I think we' back on Sunday evening, so we probably have time to meet. How about next week?

Mike: Well, I' to a very busy week. On Monday, I'm to the dentist and maybe I feel so good after that. On Tuesday, I' to study for my Math test. I to stay at home and study hard. On Wednesday, I to to the library to read a book for my English class. On Thursday, I' my hair cut in the afternoon. On Friday, I shopping with my family. We to many things for my brother's birthday party.

Easy English. <https://youtu.be/U8L2m8TeIWA>

