

Our planet in danger!

Our planet, _____, is in danger. One of the biggest problems our planet is facing is global _____. The Earth's _____ is becoming hotter and the climate change is making many animal _____ become _____. Scientists who specialize in the field of _____ (ecologists) have been warning for years that widespread _____ is destroying our planet. Forests, the main producers of _____, are disappearing. While polluters such as _____, _____, car _____, industrial and nuclear _____ continue to be released into our _____, the search for cleaner sources of energy goes on. Clean _____ and _____ are key when it comes to our planet's survival.

environment ecology garbage pollution Earth energy fumes waste warming extinct species oil surface recycling oxygen