

1. Robinson Crusoe's ship had been destroyed. 2. the sea.
3. He had been alone for many years. 4. and longed for
4. company. 5. one day he discovers a footprint on the sand.
Let's find out what he did then.

TLO – Framing Questions (Write Answers alongwith questions in your notebook)

6. One day, when I was going towards my boat, 7. I was
7. surprised to see the footprint of a man on the sand. I
8. stood amazed! I listened; I looked around me; 9. I could
9. neither hear nor see anything. 10. I went up higher to look
10. down. 11. I went up the shore and down the shore, but it was
11. no good. 12. I could find no other footprint but that one. I
13. went to it again to see if there were any more footprints
14. and to tell if it had been my imagination. 15. But I was not
15. mistaken, for there was exactly the print of a foot — toes,
15. heel, every part of a foot. 16. I could not imagine
16. how it came there.

17. I stayed a long time thinking, but
17. became more and more confused.