

YOU LOOK GREAT!

Fill in the correct form of look and look like.

1. My sister so cute with her long curly hair.
- She a princess in her gorgeous pink dress!
2. You extremely happy! Actually, you a million dollars!
3. What's the matter? You a fish out of water!
4. The two friends twins in the same clothes at the party yesterday.
5. — What your cousin ?
— He's fit and handsome with short wavy hair and big brown eyes.
6. Those dark clouds scary. It rain! Hurry up!
7. Her pale skin snow!
8. — you your father?
— No, I much younger.

Write the comparative or superlative degree of the adjectives in brackets.

1. — Who is (handsome) boy in your class?
David? — No, George is (handsome) than him.
2. In my opinion, you look (attractive) in this blouse than in that T-shirt.
3. The freckles make you look (pretty).
4. Look at Helen! She's got (cute) handbag I've ever seen!
5. Cinderella was (charming) girl at the Royal Ball.
6. Victor looks (serious) when he is wearing glasses.
7. This red dress looks (good) on you! The blue and the black ones are too dark for the concert.