

Get It Right

1. We use can for affirmative.
Example: I can fly.
2. We use can't for negative.
Example: I can't fly.

Question

Can you fly?
Can they fly?

Short Answer

Yes, I can.
No, they can't.

3. We use how at the beginning of questions.
Example: How fast can you swim?

A. Look at the pictures and fill in the blanks.

1. I _____ fly.

2. They _____ swim.

3. It _____ climb.

B. Answer the questions.

1. Can you climb a tree?

No, I can't.

2. Can they swim in the ocean?

3. Can it fly in the sky?

4. Can she run fast?

C. Rearrange the words to form proper questions.

1. can / jump? / How / a kangaroo / high

2. far / How / can / see? / an eagle

3. a cheetah / fast / can / run? / How

4. How / an elephant / can / grow? / big
