

Plessy VS Ferguson

The [redacted] laws were created to keep black people and white people [redacted]. Many people did not think that this was [redacted] because things were not [redacted] between white people and black people. Black people had to drink from separate [redacted] and they could not ride in the same [redacted] as white people on the train. [redacted] wanted to protest these laws. He boarded a train and sat in the [redacted] section. He was asked to move, but he [redacted] and so he was [redacted]. Plessy thought that it was his [redacted] to sit anywhere on the train, but the judge [redacted] and made a [redacted] that said blacks and whites should be [redacted] but equal. [redacted]