I am 15 years old and I like vegetables. I am thinking about becoming a vegan. It is a healthy way to live preserving the species and my life. I want to live for a long time.

I am 12 and I love eating a lot of greasy food, especially pastries. My mom says it is bad for my health, but I love it. I have a sweet tooth.

I am 11. I cannot choose what to eat. My parents make me eat anything they set on the table. They say I have to eat what they can afford. I don't have problems with it. I eat it all.

I am 14 years old and I like to eat all types of food. I mean I eat vegetables, fruits and beans but I also eat some junk food like french fries, hot dogs, pizza, and so forth. I think the secret is to be balanced.

- Daniela: I am not a picky eater.
- Sofia: Choosing my food doesn't depend on me.
- Dani: I love everything that contains sugar.
- Jonathan: I will not eat meat.

Shopping is really amazing. People buy a variety of things like clothes, shoes, accessories, and so on. Teens like to buy different things for their personal use while parents would rather buy groceries or snacks. Everyone needs to buy things, but we have to plan a budget so we can make our income productive. Do you agree?
