

Listen to the song and choose the correct answer.

It's a world of laughter
A of tears
It's a world hopes
And a world of
There's so much that we share
That it's we're aware
It's a world after all

It's a small after all
It's a small world all
It's a small world after
It's a , small world

There is just moon
And one golden
And a means
Friendship to everyone
Though the divide
And the oceans are
It's a small world after all

..... a small world after all
It's a small world after all
It's a small world after all
It's a small, small world
