Letter 1

Dear Denise,

I'm going out with a great man. He loves me and I love him. He has a great job and lots of money.

Everything is perfect, except one thing. He's fifteen years younger than I am. I'm forty-five and he's just thirty. When we go out everyone looks at us. One time a waiter asked me if he was my son. I was so embarrassed. My boyfriend just laughed, but I didn't know what to say. Now he's talking about getting married. I'd love to spend my life with him, but I don't know if I could stand all the comments as I get older.

Sara

Letter 2 (answer to letter 1)

Dear Sara,

You shouldn't let what other people think destroy your happiness. When people look at you, just look at them and smile. Show you're proud of your man.
