

Worksheet Listening 3

Gap-fill

You will hear a presentation about a new way to generate electricity. For questions 1 – 8, complete the sentences.

Mark has concentrated on _____ floor tiles for his project.

_____ can be collected from pedestrians' footsteps using these tiles.

At the mall, the tiles are bright _____.

The tiles will lower power bills and make use of a form of _____.

The tiles installed at grammar school are still in _____ according to the head teacher.

Thanks to the tiles, students at the school are more aware of what _____ is.

Kemball-Cook says his tiles are _____ more efficient than other clean energy-generating products.

A major issue still remains how to _____ the cost of producing the tiles.

Lost Works of Art

You will hear two people talking about lost works of art. For questions 1 – 6, choose the best answer a, b, c or d.

1. What was controversial about the Picasso works found in 2010?
 - a. Some say they aren't original.
 - b. There were so many of them.
 - c. A member of Picasso's family doesn't believe Picasso gave them away.
 - d. They had been kept in poor conditions for so long.
2. The Picasso works are currently
 - a. being closely guarded.
 - b. on display in Nanterre.
 - c. in the hands of Picasso's son Claude.
 - d. under scrutiny by French authorities.
3. When did Trumpeting Putto go missing?
 - a. in 1883
 - b. between 1883 and 1892
 - c. in the 1960s
 - d. in the 1980s
4. What does the woman sound sceptical about?
 - a. the discovery of the fresco coinciding with Klimt's anniversary
 - b. the current value of the fresco
 - c. the location where the fresco was discovered
 - d. the authenticity of the fresco

researchgate.net

5. Art experts
- a. are certain Klimt's brother created the fresco.
 - b. are unsure about the origin of the fresco.
 - c. suspect it's a fake painted by the finder.
 - d. are highly impressed by the work.
6. What are we told about Ernst Klimt?
- a. He was as famous as his brother.
 - b. He had painted other frescoes for the brothers' studio in Vienna.
 - c. He was less skilled than Gustav.
 - d. He always painted with his brother.