Adam Jamal, 33, said, 'We were buried in mud and earth. If these people had not found us, we would have surely died.'

'Yes. They worked all day and night digging through tons of earth and mud. I owe them my life,' added another victim, Li Jia Ming, 20.

Xu Wang Li, 35, and his friend Nizam Jalil, 30, said they broke the windows of the car and pulled the trapped man to safety.

'I saw smoke coming from the engine of my car. I drove to the side of the road. I parked the car but I couldn't get out,' Karim, 28, said.

Police said the electronic locks and windows were jammed and could not be opened so Karim was trapped in the burning car.

'I want to thank everyone in this village for your help,' said a smiling Manu. 'Thank you. Thank you for your kindness and generosity,' added Manu gratefully.

'A fire destroyed Manu's house and his family was left homeless. We collected funds, bought building materials and helped to build a new house for him,' Pak Samad said.
