

1. Fill in:

The popular comedy 'Who's in the House?' is about the Johnsons, a large family with six members, who are always finding themselves in funny situations. Karen, the mother, is a pretty woman with big eyes and 1) lips. Her daughter Carol looks like her, but has dark 2) hair and 3) ears. Steven, the father of the family, has 4) eyebrows but a 5) head. Mark, the son, is very tall and 6) with 7) shoulders. Grandma Kate, who lives with the family, is a little 8) and has a sweet face with 9) wrinkles and a 10) chin. We can't forget the final member of the family, Joker, a dog with silvery hair, who plays a large role in the hilarious events happening in the Johnsons' house.

2. From opposite adjectives from the words in the list to complete the sentences.

- comfortable
- secure
- healthy
- capable
- considerate

- 1 Jerry lacks experience and is of doing the job.
- 2 He has a very diet which has resulted in him gaining a lot of weight.
- 3 Those children should be taught some manners. They are very
- 4 Margaret is very shy and feels speaking in public.
- 5 Jane is a very young woman and needs to develop confidence.