Past Simple or Present Perfect

1. My wife to London yesterday. (go) (Time specific)
2. My wife to London. She will be returning next week. (go) (unfinished action)
3. Last night I my keys. My husband had to let me in. (Lose) (Time specific)
4. I my car keys. Can you help me look for them? (lose) (unfinished action)
5. Janet two Kilometre's already. (run) (unfinished action. Janet is still running.)
6. Janet did very well in the marathon. She 10 Km without stopping. (run) (action completed. Janet is no longer running.)
7. David alongside two of the world's finest scientists in the field of entomology. (the branch of zoology that studies insects.) (work) (David is no longer working with the two scientists, but he is still working in the field of entomology)
8. David alongside two of the world's finest scientists in the field of entomology. (work) (Action completed. David no longer works as an entomologist.)
9. I the wrong path again and now I am lost. (take) (I am still on the wrong path.)
10. I the wrong path again, but luckily, I found my way back. (take) I am no longer on the wrong path.)
11. He London three times. (visit) (He may visit London again)
12. Last year he London. (visit) (Time specific)
13. I in Pietermaritzburg for 23 years before I moved to Cape Town. (live) (I no longer live there)
14. I in Cape Town for the past 30 years and I will live here till I die. (live) (I am still living in Town)
15. I love playing hockey. I since I was a child. (play) (I still play hockey)
16. When I was at school I Hockey. (play) (I no longer play hockey)
17. I am feeling ill because I too much coffee today. (drink) (finished action and time specific)
18. I 3 cups of tea since lunch time. I will have one more before I go to bed. (drink) (Unfinished action. I will have another cup before the day ends)
18. I an accident on my way to work this morning. (see) (finished action and time specific)
19. I many accidents since I have been driving. (see) (unfinished action. I am still driving and may see more accidents.)

LIVEWORKSHEETS