

THE CLEVER CROW

Read the Writing Module 30.7.2021.

Then, number the story in the correct order.

One Sunday afternoon in a deserted island, there was a crow wandering under the hot sun.	1
After a while, he found the water but it was in a huge pitcher.
He searched for the water.
Since his beak was not too long to reach for the water, he must make the water to reach to the top of the pitcher.
He put some pebbles into the pitcher one by one.
He looked very tired and fatigue because he was so thirsty.
He couldn't reach it. Suddenly, he got a brilliant idea.
He tried to drink the water but it was too little.
Although it takes a lot of time and sweat, he did not give up.
The water started to rise and finally, he was able to drink the water.
At the end, he could quench his thirst and he felt so happy as a lark.
