

Name: _____ 5th grade _____ Date: _____
Teacher: fernanda.suarez@colegioamericano.edu.ec

Use these choices to fill-in the blanks for the story comprehension.
(10 X1 = 10 points)

Cara must write to _____

to Mr. Winston, the librarian. She must say she's truly sorry for bringing a snake into the library. Her parents _____ she tells him she was wrong.

Cara tells Mr. Winston she wanted to _____ a _____ book to see what kind of snake it was. If he had let her use the book, he wouldn't have seen the snake and _____. Her parents say it was her _____ anyway.

Cara brings Mr. Winston flowers. She tells Mr. Winston the flowers she bought him are _____ that she really didn't mean to scare him.

The snake was a _____ snake, not _____ or poisonous.

Cara tells Mr. Winston she's sorry he's in the hospital. She says that it wouldn't have happened if he hadn't opened the box and let the snake out. She apologizes, but her apology doesn't seem _____.

Insisted -fault –reference- genuine-slimy fainted-local-borrow - proof - apologize