REPORTING

a. Complete the sentences.

1. "I've decided to become a police officer."

She said _____.

2. "You really should go training more often."

He encouraged me _____.

3. "No, I won't tell a lie."

She refused _____.

4."Alright, I'll write Jake's essay."

He agreed _____.

5. "Don't drink the water!"

He told us _____.

6. "I've never met a murderer."

She said _____.

b. Change the sentences into direct speech.

1. They said they were going to the cinema.

" _____ "

2. She asked me if I'd ever been to Paris.

" _____ "

3. He told me not to leave the door open.

" _____ "

4. She asked him if he'd look after her bags.

" _____ "

5. They said they couldn't wait any longer.

" _____ "

6. She said she'd bought a new burglar alarm.

" _____ "

LIVEWORKSHEETS

c. Choose the correct letter.

1. A He said he'd help me find my dog.
   B He said he'll help me find my dog.
2. A She said she already ate.
   B She said she'd already eaten.
3. A I asked her if she was feeling ill.
   B I asked her if was she feeling ill.
4. A Sam encouraged his friend be naughty.
   B Sam encouraged his friend to be naughty.
5. A I told you to not do that!
   B I told you not to do that!
6. A He offered to cook dinner that evening.
   B He offered cooking dinner that evening.

d. Find and correct the mistakes in each sentence.

1. He asked her bring him a sandwich.

_____.

2. She told to him she was tired.

_____.

3. I asked him what he is crying about

_____.

4. She asked me what did I want to watch.

_____.

5. He told that he had been to prison.

_____.

6. I apologised for eat the last sandwich.

_____.

LIVEWORKSHEETS