Science Worksheet : "Sound"

Name : _____

Date : _____

➢ Fill in the blanks!

1. A sharp sound has a higher _____ than a less sharp sound.
2. Loud sound can damage our hearing and cause _____
3. The loudness of a sound is the _____ of the sound.
4. The intensity of a sound is measured in a unit called _____
5. Noise pollution refers to sounds that are _____, unpleasant and can disrupt human and animal life.
6. We have to take preventive measures to _____ our ears from loud sounds.
7. The pitch of a sound can be changed by changing how _____ or _____ an object vibrates.
8. _____ can cause anger and stress.
9. Sound which are sharp and piercing like a _____ shriek is said to have a high pitch.
10. Sound which are not sharp and have low pitch is a_____

➢ Answer it correctly!

11. Mention the dangers of loud sounds!

12. How do we protect our ears from loud sounds?

13. What is noise pollution referring to?

14. Mention the examples of loud sounds!

15. What is a pitch of sound referring to?

LIVEWORKSHEETS