

State True or False for each statement below.

1. Mr. Silcock is a dirty man, and he wears an old coat.
2. Merrick is kept in a small decent room.
3. Merrick's nose looks like elephant.
4. Merrick's right arm is bog, with bags of skin on it.
5. Merrick was grateful as people laugh and scream when they see him.
6. Merrick begins to live like a normal human.
7. Mr. Silcock is one of the main characters.
8. Merrick died because he wants to sleep like a normal people.
9. He went to the theatre alone since he asked permission from Dr. Treves.
10. The conflict in this story is when Merrick request to stay in a lighthouse or a home for the blind.

What happens after these events? Drag the box into the correct events.

Merrick writes the first letter of his life.

Dr. Treves asks his friend to visit Merrick.

Merrick breaks into tears for nearly five minutes.

1. Dr. Treves wants Merrick to talk to more people, especially women.
2. One days, a beautiful young lady visits Merrick. She smiles at Merrick, greets him and shakes his hand.
3. The Queen send Merrick a Christmas card and a picture of herself as gifts.

Complete the chart below.

