I am Classy, a football. I was born in a factory in Selangor with my other siblings. I was then packed in a box and sent to a shop in Serdang. I was placed in a shelf with different brands of footballs. I was the most good looking football on the shelf.

The next day, a teenager came to the shop. He likes to play football. He picked up the other footballs but they were expensive. He looked at my price and he smiled. He took me to the cashier and paid for me. I was very happy as I now have an owner and a home. My owner took good care of me. After a game, he would wipe me clean and place me in his room.

I am three years old now. I have been kicked so many times that I have become old. Now, my owner just leaves me at the back of the house. There is no cover over my head. I am constantly wet in the cold rain and my surface paint is breaking up in the heat. I am very sad.
